The Soviets

Experts returning much prior to the fall

said it had gotten too bloatingly corrupt to last.

CIA was told and told,
and missed it. Fade into an American factory.

I didn't tell you, the foreman told the salesman, who, upon delivery, told the store manager...who forgets, at first.

Then she tells the clerk to fetch the package with these last four numbers…so what?

Trivial. Coupon for a free pizza or the like. More importantly, the fix is in. Again.
